

Dear Parent:

Your child has expressed interest in entering a contest called StoryTubes. This is a nationwide video booktalking contest for kids and teens. I really liked the idea of the contest and all it involves and made it available to the students to try this year. If it goes well, I hope to continue this contest in future years. Please feel free to take a look at previous entries into the Story Tubes contest and get some more information at www.storytubes.info.

All entrants must upload their videos to either YouTube or TeacherTube in order to be fully entered into the contest. Once our students have made their videos, I will be doing the uploading and filling out all the entry information. I intend to post our video(s) to Teacher Tube rather than YouTube. If you have any reservations about your child being featured on a public web site, please speak with him or her about this and do not sign this form. Please be advised that NO NAMES will be featured on the web site; the only people who will have the names of the participating students will be those in charge of the contest.

If you have questions about the contest or what it means to have a video featuring your child posted on a site like TeacherTube, please do contact me at phone number or email.

I give my child, _____, permission to participate in the StoryTubes contest and understand that his/her video booktalk will be featured on the public web site TeacherTube.com.
